SECTION 9
Welcoming the Congregation’s New Pastor

Preparation for Welcoming the Pastor

The word that the pastor has accepted the congregation’s Call to serve as its new pastor is exciting news and needs to be shared immediately with all members. The date that the Pastor will lead the first service of worship at the church should be included. Often a social time or reception in honor of the new pastor and his/her family is scheduled after each service of worship providing informal time for some introductions. If it is not a year-round practice, the use of name tags for the first couple of months that a pastor serves the congregation is immensely helpful.

The council president will want to maintain close contact with the new pastor in the days leading to his/her arrival to begin ministry. There will be many questions and concerns to be discussed. In addition to phone contact information, it is most helpful to establish email communications as well.

A member of the Worship Committee or the church secretary should work closely with the new pastor in the planning of the first worship services. This can often be done through email notes and attachments. Worship assistants should be recruited who will assist the pastor in understanding the local worship practices of the congregation, including the manner in which Holy Communion is administered and received at worship. The bulletin should include a gracious welcome of the new pastor and members of his/her family with personal information about the pastor. If the date and time of the Installation Service has been determined, this should be included in this first bulletin and all bulletins leading up to the date of the installation.

The Pastor’s Move to a New Home

The Pastor and his/her spouse or partner will likely need to make several trips for the purpose of house hunting or to determine where they or the family will live until a permanent home is found. The name of a good realtor, perhaps a member of the congregation, might be helpful. The council will want to do everything possible to facilitate this process, including covering such travel expenses and arranging lodging as may be required. The congregation will pay for all moving expenses, including the expense of driving multiple cars to the new area. Usually all such expense reimbursements do not need to be reported on W-2 forms, but both the congregation and the pastor should check with current tax laws and information.

A Farewell for the Interim Pastor

It is appropriate to celebrate and recognize the ministry of the interim pastor who has served the congregation during the transition period. The celebration should be scheduled for the Interim Pastor’s last Sunday, which will be the Sunday prior to the arrival of the newly called pastor. At the end of Section 9 of this manual, the Order of Farewell for the Interim Pastor can be found. A simple reception following each worship service helps to make the day special.

Scheduling and Planning the Installation Service

The scheduling of the Installation Service needs to be coordinated with the pastor, the congregation and the Office of the Bishop. The service is usually scheduled at a time that makes it possible for rostered leaders and laity from nearby churches to join in the celebration, most often late afternoon on a Sunday. A representative of the Office of the Bishop, usually the dean of the conference, will be the installer. Members of the congregation, community and conference leaders, and a representative of the Office of the Bishop may be invited to participate in the service. It is appropriate to recognize and show appreciation to the members of the Call Committee and the council as part of the Installation Service.

If the person called to be the new pastor is a recent graduate of seminary (“First Call”), an Ordination Service also needs to be planned. The Ordination Service is planned by the recent graduate in consultation with the bishop who officiates at an ordination. The Ordination Service is often held at a location other than the church to which the person has been called, possibly the ordinand’s “home congregation.” Participants in this service may include persons special to the ordinand’s faith and life development. In such a case, the Installation Service is scheduled at the congregation that has called the ordinand sometime soon after the Ordination Service. However, if the ordinand chooses to have the Ordination Service at the congregation that has called him/her as their new pastor, the Ordination Service and the Installation Service are combined into one service.

A copy of the Service of Installation for a pastor may be obtained from the synod office and is printed in the Occasional Services book, a copy of which most rostered leaders have in their personal libraries.

[Offering: it is appropriate for the offering at the ordination or the installation to model good stewardship practices and generosity. Suggestions for consideration include giving beyond the congregation to a particular ministry passion of the pastor or congregation, and/or to the synod mission fund.]

The Reception

As part of the festive celebration of the new pastor’s installation, a reception is usually held following the Installation Service. The council could appoint a task force to plan and set up for the reception. It is appropriate to again introduce the pastor’s family and invite the pastor to say a few words of greeting to those gathered at the reception.

Invitations

As soon as the date and time of the Installation Service is known, work should begin on preparing and designing invitations that may be printed professionally or within the congregation. A sample Invitation to an Installation Service is included at the end of this section. A task force working with the new pastor should develop a list with mailing addresses of those to receive printed invitations.

It is nice to include the members of the congregation on the invitation mailing list even though they will know of the Installation Service through many other means. Invitations could also be sent to the extended family and friends of the pastor, the interim pastor and former pastors and their families, to the congregation councils of surrounding Lutheran congregations addressed to the president, to all rostered leaders within the conference, to the clergy of denominational churches within the community, to community leaders, to members of the Synod Council and the Office of the Bishop, and to any others desired by the pastor and task force.

Communications and Press Releases

The Calling and Installation of a new pastor is a wonderful time to provide local media with press releases and appropriate pictures. An early release could share the news of the congregation’s Call of a new pastor, providing detailed information about the pastor’s background, schooling, other churches served and family information. A second press release could share information about the Installation Service, including information about the new pastor, the congregation, and the participants in the service. Depending upon lead time and awareness of media practices, these releases could be combined into one article.

The religious editor of the local newspaper may wish to conduct an interview and include pictures taken by their own photographer. This might take the form of a feature story even after the Installation Service. Other forms of communication within the congregation and community should also be explored.

The bishop also sends out a communication to rostered leaders of the synod living in the area of the congregation inviting them to share in the celebration of a colleague’s Installation Service. Notice of the installation is also posted in synod communications to all congregations and rostered leaders of the synod.

Order of Farewell for the Interim Pastor

At the last service in which an Interim Pastor leads worship, the following may be used before the Benediction. The following may be spoken by the President of the Congregation Council or an Assisting Minister.

A: People of God, the Rev. ____________ has completed his/her work among us as our Interim Pastor and a new Pastor/Interim Pastor will arrive soon. We thank Pastor ___________ for being our shepherd and guide for our ministry during the past ________ weeks/months/years and wish him/her every blessing for his/her continued ministry in the Church of Jesus Christ.

A review of the highlights of the interim ministry may be shared at this time.

A: Let us together give God thanks for Pastor ____________ and for the work that we have done together in Christ’s name.

A: Loving God, we thank you for the blessings of your presence during our time of transition, especially as made known to us through the gifts and ministry of Pastor ___________. Through him/her we have received your Word for our lives and celebrated the Sacraments, made plans for our ministry and preparations to receive a new shepherd in our midst. Continue to guide us through the completion of our transition process until all things are brought to fulfillment according to your will. Guide as well Pastor ___________ that he/she may know the comfort of your love and be a blessing to others as he/she has been a blessing to us. All these things we ask in the name of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

C: Amen.

The Interim Pastor may wish to respond with a few informal remarks.

The service concludes with the Benediction by the Interim Pastor.
Transition Team for the New Pastor

After the arrival of a new pastor, there will be a significant time of adjustment. The new pastor brings new ideas and different ways of doing ministry. The congregation itself has undergone an in-depth self-study and developed a Congregational Ministry Site Profile. During the interview process and early conversations, many ideas and visions were shared among members and with the new pastor. As the new pastor begins his/her ministry with the congregation, it is helpful to create a Transition Team that will work closely with the pastor and the congregation to shape and support the development of this new ministry.

It is often wise to include several members from the call committee on this team since they were most intimately involved with developing the profile, articulating the congregation’s mission and vision, and conducting the first conversations with the new pastor.

The purpose of the Transition Team would be to affirm and strengthen the mission of the congregation and the ministry that the new pastor, the council and the members of the congregation will now undertake together. An important concern of this team will be open communication about expectations and interpreting new visions and directions. This team might serve for six to twelve months and could evolve into a Staff Support Committee (or Mutual Ministry Committee) if one does not already exist within the congregation.

Post Call Retreat

Every new call will include the written expectation that an overnight “Healthy Congregations” retreat (night may be spent at home) with the new pastor and congregation be scheduled within three months of the start of a ministry. At least 20% of the congregation should attend retreat for it to be successful throughout the congregation.

The main purpose of such a retreat is to develop healthy relationships in order to promote a healthy congregation. The scheduling of the retreat should be done soon after the arrival of the new pastor to reserve a retreat facility and to secure a retreat facilitator. An outside leader will facilitate this retreat. Please contact the Specialist for Resources and Training of the Florida-Bahamas Synod or the Assistant to the Bishop for Leadership for the names and contact information of trained retreat facilitators. The retreat design could include: team building activities; spiritual enrichment; roles and expectations clarification; vision, planning and strategy development; or other important leadership emphasis and can be tailored to the needs and desires of the congregation.
This may also be a good setting in which to continue to think about the short and long term future of the congregation. Visioning and goal setting are important to the success of a good ministry and should be a constant feature of the work of the new pastor and council leadership together.

When the design and date of the retreat is set, good publicity and personal invitations will ensure the greatest level of participation by congregational leaders.”

Reflecting on the Transition Process

Every congregation experiences the transition process in unique and different ways. An important step to make this process the best that it can be is for those who have completed the process to provide feedback to the Office of the Bishop. A copy of the form, Reflections on the Transition Process, is included with the resources at the end of this section. This form invites responses to the Office of the Bishop regarding the congregation’s experience of the transition period. By completing this form, members of the Call Committee, and the council, if desired, provide valuable information to assist other congregations in similar transition processes.

The form may be copied and completed by each individual member of the call committee, or the committee may choose to work together to complete only one form. The council or council president may also desire to reflect on the transition process and complete a form. All competed forms should be sent to the bishop.

A Gathering for New Pastors

While an ordained minister is called by a congregation to serve as its pastor, the pastor also remains a pastor of the whole church. The Evangelical Lutheran Church in America (ELCA) has a Vision and Expectations document for all ordained ministers. At the end of this section are resources on expectations of rostered leaders.

The bishop further expects all new pastors to the synod to participate in the “New Transitions Gathering” that is held each year in September just prior to the Conference on Ministry.

At the “New Transitions Gathering,” the new pastor has opportunity to meet with other rostered leaders who have accepted new Calls during the previous year and with the bishop and members of the bishop’s staff. This invaluable time together helps provide orientation and support for new ministry settings and a greater sense of collegiality.
Reflections on the Transition Process

This form invites helpful feedback on the Transition Process. It may be copied and completed by individual members of the Call Committee and of the Council, or the Call Committee and the Council may each complete one form. Completed forms should be sent to the Bishop’s office.

Expectations of the Bishop’s Office for Rostered Leaders of the Florida-Bahamas Synod

The Mission of the Florida-Bahamas Synod is to Share Christ, make disciples and
Do justice in the world.

In its role in supporting the Mission Statement of the Florida-Bahamas Synod and in its episcopal task of oversight, the Office of the Bishop has developed expectations for all rostered persons who serve our synod. These expectations supplement constitutional requirements (see Constitution for Congregation, Chapter 9). Their goal is to support and resource the ministries of our congregations and rostered persons by encouraging all to conduct their ministry in as healthy and well-informed way as possible.

Personal, Spiritual, and Devotional Life
The Bishop expects that all rostered persons of this synod will be persons of prayer. A strong devotional life is necessary for ministry.

Personal Stewardship of Life
The Office of the Bishop expects that all rostered persons will be good stewards of their life and health. This includes healthy habits of nutrition, exercise, rest and time management. It means nurturing close relationships with spouse/partner, family and friends. The “Visions and Expectations” document from the ELCA outlines what the church understands to be a healthy life and ministry style. Our Bishop expects careful adherence to that model.

Good Personal Financial Stewardship
All rostered persons of this synod are expected to be good stewards of their own financial resources. Growing stewardship will result in joyful generosity to the work of God’s kingdom, moving towards a tithe and beyond. The financial stewardship of our rostered persons serves as a role model for congregation members seeking to grow in their own discipleship.
Call Process

The Office of the Bishop expects that all rostered persons will follow the call process established by this Synod. Rostered persons will neither initiate nor participate in negotiations with congregations for a new call outside the synodical process. If irregularly contacted, the rostered person will immediately refer the congregation to the Office of the Bishop for further conversation.

Continuing Education

In support of the 1997 Churchwide Assembly resolution, the Office of the Bishop expects all rostered persons to participate annually in 50 hours of continuing education in order to keep their ministry skills sharp and to keep current on ministry issues in our rapidly changing context. It is most helpful to develop a plan for continuing education in consultation with your Mutual Ministry Committee or other support group. All first-call pastors are required to participate in First Call Theological Education. This is a program requiring 25 hours of designated study and 25 hours of elective continuing education each of the first three years of ministry.

Colleague Contact

Experience has shown that some rostered persons who encounter difficulties in their ministry have become isolated from their colleagues. The Office of the Bishop expects that all rostered persons in our synod will have regular contact with colleagues. This may occur through conference clergy gatherings, pericope studies or other informal settings. However, in order to assure adequate opportunity for collegial support, the ELCA and the Office of the Bishop in Florida-Bahamas have organized conference colleague groups, with each conference dean convening the gatherings.

Synodical Involvement

The Office of the Bishop expects that all rostered persons will be involved in the life and work of our synod. Each rostered person is expected to attend the Synod Assembly and the Conference on Ministry annually. Each rostered person files a report to the Bishop annually. Each pastor will lead the effort in his or her congregation to increase the financial covenant support given to the synod and the ELCA (see C9.03.c.4), moving toward a goal of 15% of undesignated congregational income. It is also expected that each rostered person will support our life together through personal involvement and congregational participation in conference, synod and churchwide committees, workshops and ministry opportunities.

"Vision and Expectations — Ordained Ministers in the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America" is a document which informs candidates for ordained ministry in this church, seminaries, congregations and candidacy committees regarding this church’s vision for ordained ministry and the high expectations it places on those who serve in this way.

It should not be confused with "Definitions and Guidelines for Discipline." The latter is a juridical document that describes the grounds on which ordained ministers may be subject to the disciplinary process of this church.

This church has been called into mission in challenging times. It is important as we carry out this mission, that we remain faithful to the one who calls us into this work. "Vision and Expectations" makes clear that ordained ministry is a privilege granted by God through the call of the church. It is not an individual right.

If this church is to reach out with the gospel to all people, leaders must have a passion for evangelism, pastoral skills that have been refined in seminary and contextual settings, and personal character and integrity worthy of the office. This document outlines the importance of the ordained minister’s faithfulness to this church’s confession, leadership through faithful service and holy living, and faithful witness to the Gospel of Jesus Christ. It sets forth the marks of healthy leadership which are essential to being a vital church in mission in a pluralistic context.

PLEASE FIND the complete document, “Vision and Expectations,” on the ELCA website (elca.org) by entering “Vision and Expectations” in the search box.

This summary contains the introduction and topics that are defined and discussed in the full version of the policy that can be found at www.fbsynod.org, click on “Resources” tab, and then on “Misconduct Policies”.

I. INTRODUCTION

Sexuality is a good gift of God. The faithful response to God who has created us male and female is our commitment to use our sexuality only in ways that glorify God.

When God’s gift of sexuality is used faithfully, the Church is a safe place for all to worship, learn, work, and be helped in a manner that is free from sexual exploitation, abuse or harassment. When the Church becomes an unsafe place, the integrity of the gospel is impaired, particularly among those who are victimized.

The Florida-Bahamas Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America is committed to preventing sexual misconduct within the church and to responding with justice and compassion when such misconduct occurs. This Statement of Policy describes how this Synod intends to fulfill these commitments. This Synod recognizes that responding to allegations of sexual misconduct requires determination, sensitivity, flexibility, respect and care for all persons affected, including the victim, the rostered person, their families and friends, the congregation, this Synod, and the whole church.

This policy is intended to provide a framework for guidance in dealing with these cases while preserving this Synod’s discretion to treat each person and each case in a manner necessitated by differing facts, circumstances, and needs of those affected. This policy cannot be imposed as rigid law, binding this Synod and others to its dictates; it must be interpreted and applied compassionately in accordance with the theological and biblical principles of the Gospel.

A. Definitions
B. The Role of Congregations
C. Role of This Synod

II. SYNOD POLICY

An ELCA Strategy for Responding to Sexual Abuse in the Church (Nov. 1992) recommended that nine elements be include in any synodical policy regarding clergy sexual misconduct and applies as well to sexual misconduct of lay rostered persons. This Synod has decided to incorporate those nine elements as follows:

A. Adequate Preparation
B. Initial Contact—First Response
C. Initial Investigation of the Complaint
D. Conversation with the Rostered Person
E. Assess the Information
F. Consultation or Advisory Panel
G. Formal Hearing
H. Disclosure
I. Follow-up
The community of faith needs to be a safe place for all. When God’s gift of sexuality is used faithfully, the church can be a safe and sacred place for all to worship, learn and be about the mission of Jesus Christ. Our proclamation of the Gospel is impaired when our church community becomes an unsafe place because of sexual exploitation, abuse or misconduct.

(Congregation’s name) affirms the Policy on Sexual Ethics in Ministry of the Florida-Bahamas Synod, ELCA. The commitment of (Congregation’s name) is to make readily available to members and friends of this congregation information about sexual misconduct and the means to respond if a person feels appropriate sexual boundaries are being crossed. Sexual misconduct includes sexual intercourse or other physical intimacies outside the bonds of marriage, improper sexual advances, inappropriate sexual innuendoes and jokes, intrusive touching, or other offensive and unwelcome sexually oriented behavior.

When the sexual misconduct involves a pastor or rostered lay leader, this congregation recognizes the need to immediately contact the Office of the Bishop by telephone (813/876-7660), by email at (bishop@fbsynod.org), by letter, or by personal visit. Communications may be addressed to the current bishop of the Florida-Bahamas Synod, 3838 West Cypress Street, Tampa, Florida, 33607-4897, and marked “confidential.” In certain situations, such as child abuse, statutory rape, and sexual harassment, the law often requires notification of the proper civil authorities of the alleged misconduct.

Furthermore, sexual misconduct by any lay leader, teacher, congregant or other person associated with this congregation should be reported to the Pastor of (name of congregation). Such notification of sexual misconduct should be made immediately by telephone (church number), by letter, or by personal visit to the pastor. Communications should be addressed to the Rev. (Name of Pastor) at (name and address of congregation) and marked “confidential.” The Pastor will then consult the Office of the Bishop to determine the appropriate response to make to the report of sexual misconduct.

The commitment of (name of congregation) is to provide a prompt and careful response to such reports, and to assure that all persons involved are treated with respect and provided pastoral care. Copies of the first contact brochure, Keeping the Church a Safe and Sacred Place for All, as well as the copies of the synod’s policy on Sexual Ethics in Ministry will be made available to all in the congregation (and school, if applicable).

Sexual misconduct is against the policies of the ELCA.

The Florida-Bahamas Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America works in cooperation with member congregations to prevent, detect, and remedy the effects of sexual misconduct within the Church.

The Florida-Bahamas Synod is strongly committed to working with Church agencies and local parishes to ensure that the Church at every level is free from any form of sexual harassment or misconduct. All forms of sexual misbehavior are unacceptable within the Church and are subject to appropriate mediation and/or disciplinary action. Such a policy complements the remedies provided in civil and criminal law for sexual misconduct and harassment.

The Church should be a safe place where people can worship, learn, work, love, and receive care in a manner that is free from sexual misconduct.

The Church needs to be a safe place for all. Every level of the Church and every agency and congregation affiliated with the Church must be free of sexual misconduct. When God’s gift of sexuality is used faithfully, the Church is a safe place for all to worship, learn, work, play, and be helped in a manner that is free from sexual exploitation, abuse, or harassment. When the Church becomes an unsafe place, the integrity of the Gospel is impaired, particularly among those who are victimized.

Because pastors, AIMS, diaconal ministers and other rostered leaders are in a position of power, they should not violate another person’s spiritual, emotional, or physical well-being. On the contrary, rostered leaders have the responsibility of protecting the boundaries of persons, especially those who are vulnerable. Young people, as well as individuals experiencing life crisis situations like grief, familial conflict, or emotional turmoil of marital conflict, separation or divorce, are especially vulnerable to victimization.

What does sexual misconduct within the Church include?
- Sexual advances, which may or may not include sexual intercourse
- Requests for sexual favors
- Implied or blatant threats
- Innuendo, humor, and jokes about sex or gender-specific traits
- Suggestive or insulting whistling, gestures, or leering
- Offensive contact (patting, pinching, brushing against the body), attempted or actual fondling or kissing, or any other form of sexualized behavior, including intercourse
- Requiring submission to sexual conduct or communication in order to obtain the services of the Church, or to be employed there
- Sexual conduct or communication that interferes with employment or the services received from the church or those affiliated with the church
- Any other sexual conduct or communication that creates an intimidating, hostile or offensive environment

“Mutual Consent?”

The belief that there was mutual consent does not exonerate the accused rostered individual. Sexual misconduct results when those in positions of authority use that authority to create an intimidating or hostile environment by violating the healthy emotional and relational boundaries that are vital in establishing trust in that relationship. From the perspective of this synod, there is no mutual consent.

What Can you do?

If you feel you have been subjected to sexual misconduct within the church:
- Say no to the individual. Be direct and firm. Tell the person without apology that you want the behavior to stop.
- Keep records of what happened and when. Document dates, times, places, witnesses, and the nature of the misconduct. Save letters, cards, or notes.
- Contact a member of the Response Team. It takes courage to come forward and report an incident of sexual misconduct. We will make every effort to respond to you with respect and care.

The Response Team

The Response Team members, whose names and contact information are on the back panel of this brochure, are available to hear reports of church-related sexual misconduct. They will listen carefully and act expediently on your report. They reflect the church’s care and concern for you and will begin an immediate response. Specific allegations against a named rostered person will be relayed to the bishop’s office. The members of the Response Team act as representatives of the bishop of the Florida-Bahamas Synod of the ELCA. Please remember:
- Don’t blame yourself.
- Don’t delay. Misconduct may continue if you delay.
- Don’t keep it to yourself. You will help yourself and others by speaking out.
- Don’t forget that sexual misconduct is a violation of Church policy and in many cases violates the law.
